

JEDI RESEARCH STAFF
COMMUNITY OF SUPPORT

Join Our Second Group Meeting!

Storytelling & Celebrating Diversity in Research Career Journeys

10 MAY 2024

12 - 1 PM PST
via Zoom

Your story has power—share it and discover where your research career can take you!

WHY ATTEND?

- Share stories and explore career paths that Stanford Medicine research staff have taken to grow and advance their careers while navigating challenges.
- Network with peers eager to support your journey and contribute to a supportive workplace.
- Influence our community by sharing your insights and experiences, helping us create a more inclusive and understanding research environment.

WHO WE SUPPORT

All staff who work within Stanford Medicine research environments are welcome to join. We especially welcome individuals whose social identities have been minoritized, systematically, and/or historically excluded in research environments to build belonging and community within our space.
